The Bonanza Worked Out—The Decline of the Great Comstock Lode.

From the Engineering and Mining Journal.

For about a year past it has been evident to well-informed outsiders that in Consolidated Virginia, at least the limits of the great bonanza had been found, but the secret which envelops everything connected with the mines on the great lode has enabled those in control to keep a knowledge of the actual condition of affairs from the public. The steady decline in the value of the bonanza stocks and the recent announcement of reductions in dividends and the closing—for several months—of the Consolidated Virginia mine, are opening the eyes of the stockholders to the actual state of the case. It is true the reason assigned for closing the mine is to make repairs to the shaft; but since the workings of two or three other shafts, through which it sent ore on previous occasions, it seems reasonable to believe the actual reason for the closing of the mine is scarcity of the ore; and it should surprise no one to find next the announcement that the ore-body had given out. Of course it will be found that for some time past the "bonanza firm" no longer had any large amount of the stock of these mines. It is, indeed, quite generally believed that at the present time the large proportion of the stock is now held in the East and in England, where the unoppressed investors have never imagined that the dividends so punctually paid might have any other origin than in net earnings. With the exhaustion of this great ore-body the glory of the Comstock will disappear, scarcely any of the other mines on it having for a long time past paid expenses.
As confirmation of the accuracy of these views, we find prominent, well-informed California capitalists making investments in Montana, Black Hills and Colorado mines, and openly saying the Comstock no longer offers an inviting field for the investment of capital. They have recently purchased four or five of the best mines yet opened in the Black Hills, and have still more recently made offers for the largest and most valuable mines at Leadville, Colorado. It seems, indeed, as if Leadville, the Black Hills, and perhaps the Helena (Montana) mines were the successors of the great Nevada bonanza, the glory of which is evidently departing.

A Dog's Suicide.

One of the most remarkable incidents going to show the affection of dumb animals for those who care for them occurred in this city a few days since. Our readers will remember the drowning last Sunday of the little six-year-old boy, Danny. The child had a little dog who was his constant companion and playmate. When the accident occurred which resulted in the drowning of the boy, the dog was with him, and by his strange conduct and uneasiness, he attracted the attention of those present. While the boy was lying in the bottom of the stream, the dog would run to the boy's mother and then toward the place where the boy was supposed to be, and finally plunged in and swam around over the spot where his little master lay. After the body had been placed in the coffin the dog manifested a strong desire to see the child, and when the lid of the coffin was raised he licked the dead face, and seemed to feel intense grief. At the time the dog went out to the railroad track and laid down upon the road, as it had done many times before; but upon the approach of the train he leaped himself upon the rail, and deliberately permitted the train to pass over his body—being killed. The whole action of the dog were such as to convince one that it was governed by reasoning powers, and is another illustration of the remarkable love or attachment that some animals have for their masters. The mother, at the time of the drowning, supposed the child was at home, and therefore neglected to obey the hint given by the dog that might have saved the boy's life.—Leadville (Colorado) Herald.

A Fascinating Employment.

New York Times: The editor's is a most fascinating employment: does not require any previous education or preparation, and pays enormously. The principal occupation of leading editors is to receive enormous bribes for leading articles; to attend theatres, concerts, and other places of public resort, occupying the best places, of course, and to reform political leaders how to regulate affairs. Assistant editors and reporters, who are scarce at $300 a week, generally work four hours a day when they are not away on vacations, have free quarters everywhere, and the pleasure of their company is contended for by the elite of the city.

From Wonder to Wonder.
Troy Wigg: A Troy inventor will shortly take out a patent for a cataphone. By means of wires stretched along back yard fences and house tops he conveys, with the aid of some simple machinery, all concatenate caterwauls into an air tight barrel. By another simple contrivance the sound in the barrel can be compressed, and can be used in quantities for fire and burglar alarms. The inventor predicts that he will give to the boys something that will make Rome howl, in place of dangerous fire-crackers for Fourth of July celebrations. For blasting rocks, he says, it is just the thing.

INSANITY.

The Ratio to Population and the Causes of Madness.

In England and Wales the ratio of insane to population is 1 to 373; in Massachusetts 1 to 423; New York 1 to 587; Illinois, 1 to 586; and Iowa, 1 to 1,101. This shows that density of population has a more or less predisposing effect, producing,

as it decidedly does, a deteriorating influence on the human race, morally and physically. The increase in the number of the insane in the State of New York for the past quarter of a century is over 100 per cent, and, according to experts in mental diseases, this increase is not confined to any particular sections of the State, but is more or less general. If the different counties are examined the ratio on every 10,000 of the population would be as follows:—Ontario,

26; New York, 25; Suffolk, 25; Schuyler, 22;

Albany, 22; Cattaraugus, 21; Dutchess, 21;

and so on down the scale, Hamilton and Rockland counties having the lowest ratio, being only 6.

To one who has been a constant reader

of the leading papers for the past few years

can fail to have been impressed with the great increase in the reports of suicides, homicides and the commitment of alleged lunatics to the different city and county asylums. While much of this is directly due to the rapid increase in the population of New York and neighboring cities there must be other causes for the diseases at work. Increase of population brings with it overcrowding, disease-producing surroundings, bad sanitary arrangements, by lowering the tone of the people, both in moral as well as physiological point of view, predisposes

the very poor and middle classes to lunacy. Dr. Tuke, well-known London alienist, has written a work under the title of "Insanity in Ancient and Modern Life." In this he elaborately investigates

the causes of mental diseases in Great Britain and neighboring countries. He has been enormously large during the last half century. After a careful examination of all the statistics showing that the number of insane people confined in asylums in England and Scotland at the present time reaches 66,595. Dr. Tuke concludes that the principal causes of mental disease are:—First, intemperance, the action of alcohol and allied stimulants, not only in the individuals taking them to excess, but upon his or her offspring, whose weakness produces degeneracy in the succeeding generations;

Second, that defective nourishment leading

as it does to exhaustion and malnutrition

of the system, and the consequent degeneracy of the race, the evidence of which can be seen in large, insufficiently fed populations. Closely allied to this, Dr. Tuke considers bad sanitary arrangement and overcrowding in filthy dwellings. Under the third class of causes he considers moral influences, "partly mixed in character, which excite or depress the emotions, partly as a disolvent, depraved habits, domestic sorrow or misery, commercial speculations and losses, religious excitement, disappointment in love and general overwork." Under the fourth and last head is considered intellectual strain as a cause of insanity, which he holds to be the least frequent of all causes, if examined alone.

An examination of the reports of the principal lunatic asylums in this country, public and private, confirms to a very great extent the observations of Dr. Tuke

made in England.

Why the French Prosper.

The secret of the reserved wealth of the French—their elasticity after disaster—

The audience seemed to appreciate this effort more than that of any previous one."

—J. W. Bates, Esq., went up to Oshkosh last evening, he says to have a little fun with the boys, but not finding any boys he returned on this afternoon's down train. Will relate a good joke that happened to a three card monte man near Watertown. The sharpers had picked their supposed greener, and taken seats by him, when the game commenced, and proceeded until the greener (?) informed them he had no money to bet. The capper, at this point handed him a ten dollar bill, telling him to bet twenty and he would take half. Greener put the ten dollars in his pocket, the conductor came along, the monte men skeddaddled, minus ten dollars.

A REGULAR TIME.

Mr. Alex. Buchholz has completed arrangements by which he can now run his steamer through Lake Koshkonong, to Fort Atkinson and Jefferson, stopping at all intermediate points. Parties who contemplate an excursion to and around the lake will consult Mr. Buchholz, who is ready to convey parties of pleasure seekers to any point above named at reasonable rates, and make schedule time.

THE BOARD OF REVIEW.

The Board of Review, consisting of Mayor Norcross, City Clerk Burgess, and Assessors Charles Sexton and Edward Connelley, are still in session at the Clerk's office. Now is the time for all those who have any grievances to redress to appear before the board. They seem to be severally in earnest in hunting up moneys, credits, and all such assets, and are not in the least slow in citing parties to appear before them for examination, whom they suspect of being favored with any amount of wealth. It will take the Board some days yet to complete their labors.

AT CRYSTAL SPRINGS.

The exercises at the springs will consist of an oration by Oden H. Fethers, Frank C. Brooks and others. Tuckwood's Band will furnish music for the dancing, which will be managed by Messrs. John Hogan and John Brown. Plenty of refreshments will be found on the grounds, and the Lotos will make regular trips during the day, accompanied by the brass band. Father Doyle will make it pleasant for all who attend, which is sufficient to draw an immense crowd.

PEEP'S AT THE PAST.

News-gathering and Advertising in Janesville in 1846.

An Old Fourth of July Oration, and Other Items of Interest to the Early Settlers.

It is occasionally as pleasant to take a peep at the past as to try to lift the curtain of the future. One of these reminiscences which are occasionally reminding one of her feet-footed time is lying upon our table in the form of a copy of the Gazette, dated August 1, 1846, which a thoughtful subscriber has carefully preserved and now kindly calls our attention to. The names of Alden & Tompkins appear nailed to the masthead, together with an announcement that the office is over Jackson & Smith's store, and nearly opposite the Janesville Stage House. Henry G. Gratton is named as the printer.

The chief article of interest is an oration delivered on the Fourth of July 1846, at Turville, by Hon. David Noggle, which is prefaced by a communication signed by Z. S. Doty and James H. Harris, as a committee of arrangements, requested Mr. Noggle to furnish a copy of the oration for publication in the Gazette, and his consent to the request. In this oration there are passages which seem rather tinged with prophesy, as well as inspired by patriotism. The following will serve as samples: "If there be those among us who, misled by a mistaken sympathy, or by sudden excitement upon any subject, are forgetting their obligation to the whole country to the constitution and the Union let us use every effort of persuasion and example, to awaken them to a sense of their dangerous error."

"If those who for the sake of private interest, personal ambition or momentary political success, are willing to experiment upon the public passions, to treat lightly their constitutional obligations, to foment sectional jealousies, and raise up geographical distinctions within the Union, let the absence of our countenance and support convince such, that the personal qualifications or public service of any living men are not objects of sufficient magnitude at the expense of the harmony of the country, the peace of the Union, or a single letter in the list of our constitutional duties."

"If among us there be any (which heaven forbid) who are prepared for any earthly object to dismember our confederacy, and destroy that constitution which binds us together, let the fate of a Hull or an Arnold be theirs, and let the detestation and scorn of every American be their constant companions, until, like them, they shall abandon a country whose rich blessings they are no longer worthy to enjoy."

Besides a political editorial the paper contains some foreign news brought over by the steamship Cambria, which was only twenty-seven days on the trip from Liverpool to Boston. It also contains an account of the death and burial of the Pope which occurred weeks before.

In local news the paper appears scanty enough. Only one item is given and that is a card from Mr. Elisha Brown, and his sons, Hiram and Josiah, informing their friends that they had moved into the town of Center, Rock county, and desired all letters to be directed to "Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin territory."

In one corner of the sheet is scantly placed the wonderful announcement that two cargoes of pressed hay had arrived the week previous at New York "from the far off regions of Iowa, showing what things internal improvements are able to accomplish."

A glance through the advertising columns brings forth the names of attorneys E. V. Whitton, Charles S. Gordon, and Isaac Woodie. D. F. Kimball is given as Clerk of the United States District Court. Volney Atwood as Sheriff, and William F. Tompkins, Judge of the Probate Court. Among the cards of other professional gentlemen are found under the head of physicians and surgeons: Lane & Lewis, S. F. Nichols, A. K. Stearns, and J. M. Evans, a homeopathic physician at Beloit and M. M. Smith, a botanic physician at Johnston. M. B. Edison is among the prominent advertisers of drugs, school books, &c. Among the general stocks of merchandise advertised are those of E. H. Bennett, Doubtless & Jewett, Jackson & Smith, J. W. & W. A. Laffin, and L. E. Stone.

Among the hotels the attention of travelers is called to the Janesville Stage House kept by C. Stevens, the Rock River House at Beloit, kept by Cator & Kent; and the Milton House at Prairie du Lac in this county.

E. H. Strong gives an extensive hardware and stove advertisement. Tailoring is offered by Sally & Chase, Josephus Driver, and Scott & Teal.

J. M. Burgess announces in a card that he is an architect and practical builder, or prepared to do all manner of work in his line.

William Hodson has a notice of his brewery.

Three dissolutions of partnerships are announced in this ancient sheet, one being that of Lawrence & Co., L. Stoughton and W. A. Lawrence having purchased the interest of J. D. Chambers. Another that A. T. Hart & Co. had dissolved, and another that Allen, Woodie & Co. had done likewise.

W. H. Bailey offers the public insurance in the National Fire Insurance Company, of New York. Wm. F. Tompkins proclaims the manifold merits of the Hussey Reaper. J. Currier's wagon manufacture is also given space.

The columns contain "General Order No. 2. Office of the Adjutant General, Mineral Point, Wisconsin Territory, June 23, 1846," in which is stated who may enlist in a regiment of Infantry to be held in readiness in the Territory of Wisconsin in accordance with the terms of an act of Congress, providing for the prosecution of the existing war between the United States and the Republic of Mexico, and to hold themselves in readiness to be mustered into the service of the United States, when called on by the Governor of Wisconsin. It is signed by William R. Smith, as Adjutant General of the Militia of Wisconsin Territory.

M. W. Trask & Co. give the public to understand that they have a large stock of furniture. A. V. Lowe announces his willingness to wield the paint brush.

T. Shaw calls attention to the plows he is manufacturing, and W. M. Barless says he will sell short tug harnesses at $14, and with breeching at $18, a reduction of four dollars on the general prices.

Miss F. Corvill has a card advertising herself as a milliner and dress maker, with her residence at the house of J. Bemis, J. B. Davis speaks of his lively stable.

At the head of one column appears a wood-cut representing the dashing four-horse stage, making its trips from Milwaukee to Galena in the unparalleled time of three days. The time table and other necessary information for travelers is given under the cut.

Mr. J. B. Doe informs the public that he has just received a large stock of new goods. Tom Lappin inserts a card telling those who owe him to pay up at once, as he has sold out his stock to L. E. Stone. A similar card is found signed by U. Storey.

D. F. Kimball announces that he has opened a stock of groceries and dry-goods which he is to sell for a commission, and in accordance with instructions from those owning the goods, he will sell only for cash.

The paper is to many a pleasant yet and reminder of the days gone by, while to others who have moved into Janesville in later years it cannot fail to be of interest. The Gazette has made great strides since then, as well as the city and county which has so liberally patronized it, and both will doubtless continue to flourish and to steadily and surely grow.

THE OHM'S MURDER.

The Examination of Young Ohm at Monroe Yesterday.

The examination of young Ohm was devoted to technicalities all to-day. Testimony this afternoon referred exclusively to boot tracks, size, shape, and direction. One witness swears positively that they were made by Fred Ohm, whom he knows and whose tracks witness would readily recognize. At the conclusion of this testimony proceedings were rested and the case adjourned for further hearing till July 23, the prisoner being remanded to jail till that time without bail. It is thought matters will mature in the time intervening which will give definite conclusions.

MR. EVANS' CONCERT.

Mr. C. D. Evans, of Whitewater, who was graduated from the Institution for the Education of the Blind in this city, several years ago, recently gave a concert in that place which drew out a very large audience. The Register speaks in flattering terms of the manner in which the programme was given. Mr. Evans took violin lessons at the Institution here, and while there became an accomplished player. He afterwards went to Philadelphia, where he remained three years, and during that time devoted himself assiduously to his favorite instrument. On his return West, he located at Whitewater and is now following his profession—that of a concert violinist. In this he has achieved commendable success.

We might as well say that Mrs. St. John was called to take part in Mr. Evans' concert. She has several times appeared before Whitewater audiences, and always to their delight, and to her credit. She has won a high reputation there as well as here and elsewhere, and her rich voice with its fine cultivation, sweetness and power, never fails to call forth admiration and to elicit applause.

TOO MUCH FOR HIM.

The friends and railroad employees are peddling a good story at the expense of Trackmaster H. D. Chapman. It appears that this gentleman stopped at Harvard the other day; troubled somewhat with an "aching void" in the region of his digestive organs, he dropped into the well-kept Ayers hotel of M. M. Towne, and partook of one of the superb repasts of that noted host. After supper, he invested in a 30-cent cigar, and wandered around the corner, forgetting all about the train. He was soon lost in the perfumes of his Havana, the train left, and in about twenty minutes, Chapman threw down his "stub," remarking to a friend that he must hurry up to the train. He did hurry, but lo, Conductor Rich had pulled out too soon for him, leaving Brother Chapman for the first time in a twenty years' railroad experience.

GENERAL SHIELDS.

Mr. F. S. Lawrence, Secretary of the Rock County Agricultural Society, received a letter from General James Shields, today, in which the veteran soldier says he will positively speak in Janesville on the 5th day of September, the third day of the fair. This is a good card for the Society and a fortunate thing for the General's many warm friends in this county. To Mr. Lawrence, who took a deep interest in securing General Shields, the people owe a debt of gratitude.

THREE MORE.

At an early hour this morning, Marshal Keating and Officer Osgood, discovered a nest of tramps in a shed within the Chicago and Northwestern stock yards, and succeeded in arresting three young men while they were asleep, and took them to the Colley. They were brought before Justice Prichard this forenoon, giving their names as George O'Brien, Robert Sloan and Dan Whalen. After hearing the evidence, Whalen was assigned to do duty in the chain gang for ten days, while O'Brien and Sloan were let off by serving six and five days, respectively.

HER EIGHTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY.

On Thursday, June 20th, Mr. Fred Gould, of Lima Center, invited a number of friends of his mother to meet at his residence, it being in honor of her 88th birthday. There were present twenty-two gentlemen whose average ages were 53 years; the average age of seventeen of these gentlemen was 60 years. Of the twenty-nine ladies who were present, fifty-three years was the average age, and the combined age of all was 2,703 years.

HARMONY.

A number of the members of Crystal Temple of Honor went out to the Town Hall of Harmony, last evening, to make arrangements for instituting a Temple in that town. Stirring addresses were made by Rev. T. P. Sawin and S. Clark Burnham, and a prospect for a vigorous Temple was manifest. A large delegation was also present from the Clear Lake Temple. The Town Hall was filled to overflowing.

THE CITY HALL.

Some weeks ago the Common Council appointed a special committee to repair and otherwise renovate the city hall and offices. The committee let the work to Messrs. Rogers & Hutchinson, who have about completed the same. The interior of the building has been repainted and the walls and ceilings calcimined. The doors and window casings are grained in oak. The graining is the personal work of Mr. Henry Rogers, of the above firm, and is pronounced by all who have seen it to be the handsomest specimen of graining in the city. The entire job is done in a first class manner, and is a credit to the painters, the council and those under whose management the work has been done. The building is new and clean and the council should take care that it is kept in such order, which we have no doubt they will do.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL.

The Lawn Party given under the auspices of the Ladies Society of the Presbyterian church, yesterday afternoon and evening on the spacious grounds of Mr. J. H. Kinney, was a very enjoyable affair. The altitude, natural beauty of grounds and fine view of surrounding scenery, together with a commodious residence first-class in all of its appointments, renders it a desirable place for social enjoyment. The hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinney, and the untiring efforts of the Ladies' Society aided by Reverend Sanderson and Mr. Thor, Judd, made the party a very happy event. Mrs. James Sutherland arranged and kindly presented to the ladies for this occasion, a book of choice flowers, the arrangement of which was beautiful, and reflects great credit upon her artistic skill.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning registered 70 degrees above zero, and at 2 o'clock p. m. 82 degrees above. For the corresponding time one year ago the register was 62 and 83 degrees above.

Token of Respect.

Among the nations of antiquity, an offering of perfumes was regarded as a token of the most profound respect and homage. At the present time, a present of a box of Dr. Price's exquisite ointment, would not only be regarded as a token of respect, but enjoyed, to the last drop, with the greatest pleasure.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Ladies and Gents will always find the nicest and cheapest Book and Stationery in the city and Sutherland's Bookstore, No. 29 Main street.

Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning, will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual constiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. ## A Pardonable Pride

Proudest people to delay, by any laudable means that science affords, the evidences of physical decay. Who that is in perfect health would not match the bright eye, the active mind, and other appearances of youthful vigor, with the luxuriance, the rich color and beauty of youthful hair? Parker's Hair Balsam stands pre-eminent as an elegant hair dressing, and by its healthful action on the roots not only promotes a luxuriant growth of the young hair, but unfailingly restores gray or faded hair to the original youthful color, giving a soft, rich and lustrous appearance of great beauty. No other preparation so effectually removes dandruff or stops falling of the hair; its cooling and healing action entirely curing itching and humors of the scalp, and keeping the skin clean, white and healthy. It is perfectly harmless, exquisitely perfumed, and contains nothing that will soil the skin or gum the hair. It is not a dye, and is unequalled for excellence and purity. Buy a bottle from your druggist A. J. Robert's, Janesville, Wis., and test its merits. ap27dewwvillJune27

"Dobbins' Electric Soap."

Having obtained the agency of this celebrated Soap for Janesville and vicinity, I append the opinion of some of our best people to its merits. I have washed with Dobbins' Electric Soap made by L. L. Cragin & Co., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and pronounce it the best soap I have ever used. The rapidity and ease with which it enables one to do once washing is really surprising. Boiling the clothes is entirely unnecessary and no rubbing is needed. I would not be without it.

NELLIE KENNEDY.
I have no hesitation in saying that no housekeeper should be without Dobbins' Electric Soap. I can heartily recommend it, it is a charm in the washhouse.
ELIZA P. LELAND.
As a time, labor and money saving article, I take pleasure in recommending Dobbins' Electric Soap to my neighbors. It promises wonders and does all it promises.
MARY YEOMANS.
